To make the figures raised from the lettering a. tilt table to the left 5 degrees b. make the cut around the figure starting from the entry hole, going clockwise (see arrows). After the cut you can force the figure to the front.

Alternately, you could just cut the figures out normally and leave the figure as an opening in the letters.